

What About the Wedding Music?

Weddings done at the same venues as the Reception are becoming more and more popular in today's busy society. Here's some traditional and alternative Wedding song/music suggestions:

Interlude /before mood music

- Arioso - T.Carter Music
- Love of my life - Jim Brickman & Michael Smith
- Time of the Season - The Zombies
- I cross my heart - George Strait

Prelude / guests start arriving

- Canon in D Minor - Pachelbel
- You & I - Michael Buble
- Let's live for today - The Grass Roots
- Your love amazes me - John Michael Montgomery

Procession /Bridal party & Bride enter

- Bridal Chorus - Wagner
- Longer - Dan Fogelberg
- Canon in D - Rose & Thistle Wedding Band
- When you say nothing at all - Alison Krauss

The Ceremony / during or after "I Do's"

- Jesu, joy of man's desire - T.Carter
- What a wonderful world - Louis Armstrong
- You're my best Friend - Queen
- Only Time - Enya

Unity Candle (if preferred)

- Sheep may safely graze - Daniel Kobiaika
- Ever since we met - Chris Botti
- I wanna be your everything - Keith Urban
- Nothing else matters - Metallica

Recession ; departure/exit

- Trumpet Voluntary - Peter Hurford
- Walking on sunshine - Katrina & the Waves
- Signed , sealed , delivered I'm yours - Stevie Wonder
- From this Moment - Shania Twain

Think outside the box. Make your special moments as beautiful and personal as you possibly can. These are suggestions only, it's your Wedding, make it all yours.

Remember to "Dance Like There's Nobody Watching !"